

NCTA

Norfolk County Teachers Association

SPRING 2019 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COURSE MENU

NCTA Professional Development courses can support your Professional and Student-Learning goals!

Our new menu format highlights the diversity and applicability of our courses with regard to the MA Teacher Evaluation Rubric.

- Online and onsite options
- Three graduate credits from Framingham State University ($575)
- Earn PDPs (3-graduate credits are equivalent to 67.5 PDPs)
- Collaborate with local colleagues and support your local association
- Registration open until January 16

Spring 2019
Course Dates:

January 28, 2019
to May 3, 2019

REGISTER ONLINE: www.myncta.org

Visit our website (www.myncta.org) for more information including onsite course dates and locations, course descriptions, withdrawal and late registration policies, contact information and much more!

NCTA SPRING 2019 COURSE OFFERINGS (01/28/19 - 05/03/19)	PRDV	INSTRUCTOR	FORMAT
---	------	------------	--------

STANDARD 1: Curriculum, Planning, and Assessment (CONTINUED ON BACK)

Comics: 21st C. Literature in the Classroom (6-12)	72424	Shultz	ONLINE
Literature Circle Response	74684	Kafka	ONLINE
Children's Literature in the Elementary Classroom	75215	Shultz	ONLINE
Adolescent Literacy in the Content Areas	76117	McNair	ONLINE
The Journal: Its Uses to Enhance Curriculum	77314	Shultz	ONLINE

*course may qualify for SPED requirement in MA licensure recertification